Frank H. Moore Memorial Scholarship

Frank H. Moore was General Manager of L&N Federal Credit Union from 1969-1986. He had a distinguished career in the credit union movement at local, state, and national levels. He received the highest honor bestowed by the Kentucky Credit Union League in 1981, when he was awarded the Steve Brody Memorial Award for outstanding credit union service. This scholarship was established as a memorial to Frank H. Moore and to recognize students based on leadership and citizenship, without regard to financial need.

Eligibility

This scholarship is open to all L&N Federal Credit Union members and/or daughters and sons of members. The student must be enrolled, or plan to enroll in the current year in undergraduate study leading to a traditional bachelor's degree and maintain a 2.5 GPA.

Eligible children include a member's unmarried children; natural, legally adopted or step children. Eligibility also extends to any child principally dependent on a member for support. When not in attendance at school, the child must reside permanently in the member's household in what generally is considered a parent/child relationship.

Applications are Scored as follows:

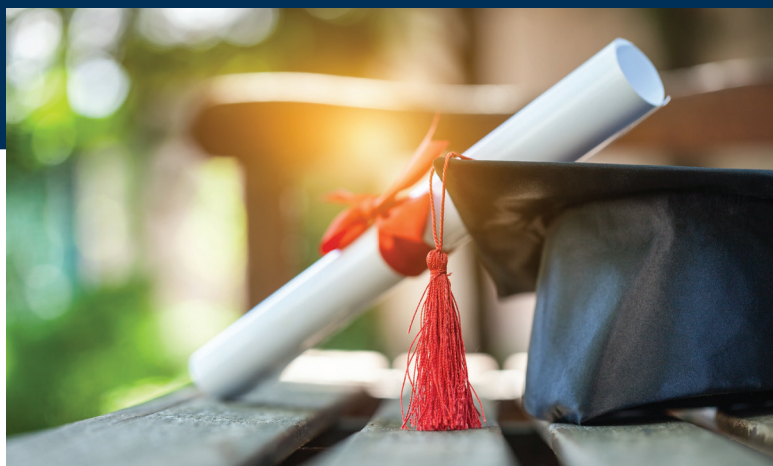

1. Achievements (up to 11 points)
2. School Recommendations (up to 11 points)
3. Strong Leadership Qualities (up to 26 points)
4. School Involvement (up to 26 points)
5. Community Involvement (up to 26 points)

Recipients of the scholarship are selected by an impartial Scholarship Selection Committee.
