DEAR CREDIT UNION MEMBERS: By signing a Membership Card, depositing at least a par value of one share in a Regular Share Account and receiving approval from a Membership officer, you have become a member of L & N Federal Credit Union ("Credit Union") with all rights and privileges therein, including the right to vote at the annual meeting of the membership. Being a Member in good standing and maintaining Par Value in a Regular Share Account entitles you to all Services, including loans, the Credit Union offers

By signing and selecting the accounts you desire on the Membership Card or any agreement cards (hereinafter individually or collectively referred to as "Signature Card"), you have opened the savings and checking accounts designated by the account number on the Signature Card and you have agreed to be bound by these rules and regulations, and by our by-laws, amendments to the by-laws, and federal and state laws which govern the services offered by us. Unless it would be inconsistent to do so, words and phrases used in this disclosure should be construed to state the singular includes the plural and the plural includes the singular. As used in this disclosure, the words "we", "us", "our", "Credit Union" and "L&NFCU" mean L & N Federal Credit Union and the words "you" and "your" mean the member(s) who own the account.

BOUND BY THESE RULES Any reference in these rules to an account will relate only to the accounts opened on a Signature Card by you. Enclosed with this disclosure is a separate disclosure for each account opened by you and a Fee Schedule. Please read this disclosure and the Fee Schedule carefully; continued use of your account after receipt of these means you agree to the terms of the account and the fees and charges that may be imposed. We will also be bound by these rules but reserve the right to change or add to them at any time, upon giving reasonable notice to you. Such notice may consist of a notice of the changes being posted in our offices for a reasonable period of time, enclosing a notice on or in the statement of account, mailing a notice in a special mailing, or, if you have agreed, providing you electronic notification. Notice to any one of you is notice to all of you who are legal owners of the account.

THIS AGREEMENT IS SUBJECT TO ARBITRATION UNDER THE LAWS AS STATED IN THE SECTION, HEREIN, TITLED "ARBITRATION AGREEMENT AND WAIVER OF CLASS ACTION" AND THE FEDERAL ARBITRATION ACT §9 USC 1 ET SEQ. BEGINNING ON PAGE 22. THIS SECTION EXPLAINS ANY OPT-OUT RIGHTS YOU MAY HAVE AND STEPS TO EXERCISE SUCH RIGHTS.

CREDIT REPORTS By your signature you have authorized us to check your financial history. You agree that we may pull a credit report to open an account or if you request a loan or loan increase. You understand and agree we have the ability to check your credit report in relation to any update, increase, renewal, extension, or collection on your account(s) or loan(s). We may report information about your accounts and loans to credit bureaus. Late payments, missed payments, or other defaults on your accounts or loans may be reflected on your credit report.

MEMBERSHIP You are eligible to join the Credit Union provided you live, work, worship, attend school or belong to any legal entity in Bullitt, Hardin, Henry, Jefferson, Knox, Larue, Laurel, Meade, Nelson, Oldham, Pulaski, Rockcastle, Shelby, Spencer, Trimble, and Whitley counties in Kentucky and Clark, Floyd, Harrison, Scott and Washington counties in Indiana. You are also eligible if you live, work, worship, attend school or belong to any legal entity in certain prescribed areas of Boone, Campbell, Kenton, Gallatin, Grant, and Pendleton counties in Northern Kentucky, Dearborn and Ohio counties in Indiana and Hamilton County in Ohio. These areas make up the Credit Union's primary membership base.

USA PATRIOT ACT – Notice Important Information About Procedures for Opening a New Account: To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each person (businesses and individuals) who open any financial transaction account(s) including deposits, loans and safe deposit boxes. The credit union requires proof of taxpayer identification number upon account opening; ex; SS#, ITIN.

Family Members You are eligible to join the Credit Union provided you are related to a member by immediate family. The immediate family is defined as spouse, child, sibling, parent, grandparent, grandchild, step parents, step children, step-siblings and adoptive relationships. Household unit eligibility is defined as persons living in the same residence maintaining a single economic unit.

Account Ownership Options

Single Ownership

The primary person on the account must be a member. You can set your account up as a single ownership, where the account belongs only to you; no one else has access to the funds, a Legal Ownership, where the account has two or more owners, each owner with the right to access the account individually; or you can designate a Payable on Death beneficiary which will detail who is entitled to the funds in the account upon your death. A legal owner does not have to be a member. You may retain your membership for life, providing your membership is active and in accordance with the by-laws of the Credit Union.

Legal Ownership

If you designate a Legal Owner on your account, we are hereby authorized to recognize any of the signatures subscribed on the Membership Application in the payment of funds or the transaction of any business for this account. The legal owners of this account hereby agree with each other and with the credit union that all sums now paid in on shares, or heretofore or hereafter paid in on shares by any or all of said legal owners are and shall be owned by them jointly, with full rights of survivorship and be subject to the withdrawal or receipt of any of them, and payment to any of them or the survivor or survivors shall be valid and will discharge said credit union from any liability of such payment. The legal owners also agree to the terms and conditions of the account as established by the credit union from time to time. Any or all of said legal owners might pledge all or any part of the shares in this account as collateral security to a loan or loans from the credit union. The right of authority of the credit union under this agreement will not be changed or terminated by said owners, or any of them except by written notice to said credit union, which will not affect transactions heretofore made. Accounts with a Legal Owner are held with full rights of survivorship, which means, the named legal owner on the account is entitled to all funds in the account upon the death of the primary owner. Legal owners on a membership are not entitled to vote at the annual meeting of the membership.

Payable on Death Beneficiary

If you elect to designate a Payable on Death Beneficiary, you are naming the individual to whom the funds are payable upon your death and upon the death of all named legal owners on the account. Payable on Death Beneficiaries have no access to the account during the lifetime of the owner. This agreement and all payments hereunder will be subject to the Credit Union's policies with respect to paying withdrawals, setoffs, and other charges against the account after death.

This authority will remain in full force and effect until the Credit Union has received written notification from any of the Legal Owners of its termination. Upon the death of one owner, any surviving owner may change this agreement at any time, but this right to change shall not extend to any P.O.D. payee, as a P.O.D. payee is not considered an owner of the account.

P.O.D. beneficiaries can be an individual, trust, charity and a non-profit organization. A P.O.D. designation is not available for any custodian account. All P.O.D. payees will be the primary beneficiaries; no contingent beneficiaries will be accepted. The proceeds of this account, upon the death of the last owner, shall be divided equally between the P.O.D. payees so named. Any payment made by the Credit Union pursuant to the P.O.D. designation prior to the receipt of a notice of an adverse claim or a restraining order shall be a complete discharge of the Credit Union's obligation and shall constitute a release of the Credit Union from any and all claims of any P.O. D. payee as to the amount paid.

TYPES OF ACCOUNTS In order to maintain your membership in our Credit Union, you must maintain a Regular Share/Savings Account in your own name. You also must maintain a minimum aggregate balance of at least five dollars in any or all of your Savings or Certificate Accounts. Failure to do so will terminate your membership in the Credit Union. Your Share/Savings Account will be maintained as any other savings account. Being a Member in good standing and maintaining Par Value in a Regular Share Account entitles you to all Services, including loans, the Credit Union offers.

Savings (Share) Accounts You must maintain at least a par value of one share in this type of account or it will be closed. For Regular Share/Savings accounts, the par value is $5.00. Savings accounts are not transferable except on the books of the Credit Union. Special savings accounts include any account designated by you, such as Vacation Club or Christmas Club. The par value for this type of account is $5.00.

Donation Savings Accounts The Credit Union will establish an account to accept donations for the benefit of a named beneficiary(s). This type of account will not have ATM/Debit card access, checks will not be issued and the account will only be allowed to remain open for 90 days. At the end of the 90 -day period, if a balance remains, a check will be issued to the named beneficiary(s).

Minor Savings Accounts We will establish accounts for minor children upon request of a parent, grandparent or legal guardian. Access to these accounts will not be restricted due to the age of the minor child and we will not require an adult signature for withdrawals or deposits.

Checking Accounts These are our transaction accounts and they may be accessed by Credit Union approved checks, electronic funds transfers, or in person. The Credit Union offers 5 types of checking accounts. which permit an average monthly number of payments, not to exceed 50 per month, to third parties. Minimum balance requirements may apply to some accounts in order to avoid the incurrence of a service charge or to earn dividends. Temporary checks will only be issued after an order has been received for checks. Counter checks will be used to obtain the account # and will then be destroyed. A voided check may be given to a new member to start direct deposit only.

The credit union is authorized to pay checks, Point of Sale (POS), ACH, or other transactions signed or authorized by you or any of you, (if more than one person has signed the account agreement) and to charge the payments against the Checking account. In the event the credit union receives a request to pay a transaction and the available balance in the checking account is not sufficient to cover that transaction, the transaction will be paid with a transfer from your share account (not to exceed 6 transfers per month). It is agreed that:

- A. Postdated and Stale-Dated Drafts. We may pay any draft without regard to its date unless you notify us in writing of a postdating. The notice must be given to us in time so that we can notify our employees and reasonably act upon the notice and must accurately describe the draft, including the exact number, date and amount. You understand that the exact information is necessary for the Credit Union's computer system to identify the draft. We are not responsible if you give us an incorrect or incomplete description, or untimely notice. You may make an oral notice which lapses in fourteen (14) calendar days unless confirmed in writing from time to time. You agree not to deposit checks, drafts or other items before they are properly payable. We are not obligated to pay any check or draft drawn on your account which is presented more than six (6) months past its date; however, we have no obligation or liability to you or any other party to the instrument or in the chain of the collection process if we do so.
- B. The credit union is under no obligation to pay a check which exceeds the available balance in the Checking Account, however, the credit union is obligated to pay all POS transactions which have been authorized based on a positive available balance. You agree the credit union may, however pay transactions that exceed the available balance and charge the amount of the resulting overdraft plus a fee against any other share account from which the person who authorized the transaction is entitled to withdraw shares. In the event that any of you conducts a transaction which would exceed the available balance in this checking account and if at that time any of you are eligible to receive advances from this credit union, such transactions shall be deemed to be a request to the credit union to prepare an application for an advance under such loan account in the amount needed to cover the transaction. If the application is approved, the credit union will advance to this checking account;

- C. Except for negligence, the credit union is not liable for any action it takes regarding the payment or nonpayment of a check or other transactions;
- D. Non-cash payments received on shares in the Checking account will be credited subject to final payment;
- E. The Checking Account shall be subject to fees and charges in accordance with the Fee Schedule adopted by the credit union from time to time;
- F. The use of the Checking Account is subject to such other terms, conditions and requirements as the credit union may establish from time to time; and
- G. If signed by more than one person, this agreement is subject to the additional terms and conditions of any legal share account agreement that applies to a share account in your legal names; or if there is no such agreement, this agreement is subject to the additional terms and conditions printed above.

Understanding Your Account Balances. Your account has two kinds of balances: the balance and the available balance. We use the available balance to determine whether a transaction will overdraw your account, be returned or declined, and for determining when an overdraft, Courtesy Pay, or NSF fee will be imposed. Your balance reflects transactions that have posted to your account but not transactions that have been authorized and are pending. Your available balance reflects transactions minus any holds on your account, such as debit card transactions that have been authorized but are pending final settlement or holds for checks you have deposited. You are responsible for ensuring your available balance is sufficient to cover all of your transactions. You can review your balance and available balance when you review your account online, at an ATM, by phone, by mobile application, or at a branch.

Overdraft(s) and Overdraft Protection Plan Agreement. An overdraft occurs when you make any transaction that exceeds the available balance in the account you access by check, electronically, or otherwise. You agree not to cause an overdraft in any account with us. However, if for any reason we pay any transaction or impose a fee that creates an overdraft, you agree to pay us promptly the amount of the overdraft or fee. The Credit Union has no obligation to notify you of any check or charge that exceeds the available balance in your account(s). Further, if we cover one or more overdrafts, we shall not have any obligation to continue to do so.

An overdrawn item will be processed in the following order:

- 1st from overdraft protection if set up from another account with available funds;
- 2nd from a line of credit if one exists and there are available funds;
- 3rd from Courtesy Pay if service is in force and there are available funds; and
- 4th we will return, decline, or reject the transaction as an insufficient fund (NSF) item and charge you an NSF fee each time such action occurs on an item or transaction (even if this means multiple NSF fees occur if an item or transaction is submitted or processed multiple times).

Courtesy Pay is a service that allows the Credit Union to pay a check written, ATM withdrawal, preauthorized debit (ACH), point of sale CheckCard, or other transaction on your account (only on one account per member) even if the transaction results in an overdraft by exceeding the available balance in the account. If Courtesy Pay is used to cover an overdrawn transaction, then you agree to reimburse the overdraft within 30 days. You may not overdraft the account more than $800 (exclusive of service fees), and you will be assessed the same fee for each item as would be assessed for an NSF item. To qualify for Courtesy Pay, you must:

- A. Be at least 18 years of age and have a checking account in good standing for at least 60 days. A checking account is considered to be in "good standing" if it:
 - Receives regular deposits to cover transactions
 - Achieves a positive balance at least once every 30 days or less
 - Has no judicial order present which affects access to our use of it
 - Has a valid address
- B. Have a positive checking balance

- C. Have no charged-off accounts or overdrawn accounts
- D. Have no delinquent loan (that is, more than 15 days past due) or charged-off loan

The Credit Union's Courtesy Pay Program is a non-contractual courtesy and is discretionary. It is not an obligation of the Credit Union and the Credit Union may refuse to provide this service on any checking account at any time and from time to time. The accountholder does not have a contractual right to Courtesy Pay and Courtesy Pay is not guaranteed by the Courtesy Pay Program.

You agree we may use subsequent deposits, including direct deposits of social security or other government benefits, to cover overdrafts and overdraft fees. If you receive a direct deposit of social security or other government benefits into your account and you do not want us to pay your overdrafts with those funds, you must notify us of your desire to opt out.

Opt-in is required to receive coverage on standard check card transactions. The Opt-in decision may be changed at any time. This service does not cost you anything unless the service/privilege is used by initiating a check, electronic funds transfer or other payment or withdrawal request that exceeds the available balance in the account.

Opt Out An account may be removed from Courtesy Pay by you if you no longer wish to have this protection.

An account may be removed from Courtesy Pay if the account is closed for abuse. In this case, you will be placed in second chance checking which has a monthly fee as set forth in the Fee Schedule. A separate TIS disclosure will be provided at the time you are placed in second chance checking.

NSF Fees. You agree that we may charge an insufficient funds (NSF) fee for returning items and transactions presented against your account that would exceed your available balance. You further agree that we may charge an NSF fee each time an item or transaction is presented for payment even if the same item or transaction is presented for payment multiple times. For example, if you wrote a check to a merchant who submitted the payment to us and we returned the item (resulting in an NSF fee), the merchant may re-present the check for payment again (or submit the item as an ACH). If the second and any subsequent presentments or submissions are returned unpaid, we may charge an NSF fee for each time we return the item. You understand this means you could be charged multiple NSF fees for one check that you wrote as that check (or ACH created from the check) could be presented and returned more than once. Similarly, if you authorize a merchant (or other individual or entity) to electronically debit your account, such as an ACH debit, you understand there could be multiple submissions of the electronic request which could result in multiple NSF fees. You agree that we do not determine whether and when an item or transaction will be presented for payment. Rather, we determine whether or not the available balance is sufficient to pay a presented item or transaction.

Stop Payment Orders. If you don't want us to pay a specific written instrument you may request a "Stop Payment Order" ("SPO") on the instrument. Notification can be made by mail, telephone, electronically, or in person. Your SPO will take effect when we record it on your account.

A SPO will not be valid and binding unless the SPO includes your account number, the number and date of the written instrument, the name(s) of the payee(s), and the exact amount of the instrument. If this is a multiple party account, we will accept a SPO from any owner regardless of who signed the instrument or otherwise authorized the Transaction.

Only the person placing the SPO may release the SPO. You will be charged a fee for any SPO as set forth in the Fee Schedule, which may be transferred by us from any owner's account(s) or paid directly to the Credit Union. If you give an oral SPO that is not confirmed in writing by you or us within fourteen (14) days, your SPO will expire and the instrument may thereafter be paid by us.

If you provide written confirmation, your SPO will be effective for a period of six (6) months. Further, you agree that the Credit Union, in its sole discretion, may confirm any SPO in writing by sending a notice to the address shown in our records, but has no obligation to do so. Such written confirmation by us will also be effective for a period of six (6) months. To extend the SPO for an additional six (6) months, you must deliver to us an additional written request that provides all of the information required for an initial SPO as described above in this paragraph.

L&N Federal Credit Union will not be responsible for any loss as a result of honoring a check:

1. more than 14 days after receipt of your oral order to stop payment;
2. more than 6 months after your written order to stop payment, our written confirmation, or more than 6 months after a written extension as provided herein;
3. through inadvertence, oversight or accident, we honor any postdated check; or
4. if you fail to provide us with complete or accurate information.

We have no obligation to accept any order to stop payment on any certified check, cashier's check, teller's check or other instrument guaranteed by us. You will be responsible to the Credit Union if any claim or demand is made against us as a result of our acting in accordance with your stop payment order. This means that you are required to reimburse us for any loss or damages and reasonable costs, expenses or attorneys' fees that we incur in defending the Credit Union against any claims or demands made against us as a result of following your stop payment order.

You agree that any stop payment order received when the available balance in your account is insufficient to cover the item on which you are requesting us to stop payment shall be subject to a service charge for return of an insufficient funds item rather than the service charge for a stop payment order. If available, any stop payment order we receive by electronic mail or by similar means shall be treated as an oral order

Nonmember Check Cashing. If you issue a check drawn on your checking account and a nonmember of L&NFCU seeks to cash the check, you agree that we may require the nonmember to provide appropriate physical and/or documentary identification as a condition of cashing the check. You also agree that we may refuse to cash a check, even if it is properly payable and proper identification is provided, and such refusal shall not constitute wrongful dishonor of your check. Further, you agree we have the right to charge the nonmember, as a condition of cashing the check, a nonmember check processing fee. This fee, which is reflected on our Fee Schedule, helps us cover the additional costs and risks involved in cashing a check for a nonmember. You understand and agree that a nonmember seeking to cash a check drawn on your account retains the ability to deposit the check with their own financial institution which would result in your check being presented to us through normal check processing channels.

THE CHECK CLEARING ACT FOR THE 21ST CENTURY ACT – CHECK 21

The Check 21 law helps financial institutions send checks electronically to each other, by “truncating” the movement of paper checks by converting them to electronic files. Check 21 allows any financial institution that doesn't want to receive a check in electronic form to request a paper copy of the electronic check. This converted paper check is called a “substitute check”. A substitute check is more than a photocopy or paper image of the original check – it is required to meet strict standards to qualify as the legal equivalent of the original check.

WHAT IS A SUBSTITUTE CHECK?

To make check processing faster, federal law permits banks to replace original checks with “substitute checks”. These checks are similar in size to original checks with a slightly reduced image of the front and back of the original check. The front of a substitute check states: “This is a legal copy of your check. You can use it the same way you would use the original check.” You may use a substitute check as proof of payment just like the original check.

This notice describes rights you have when you receive substitute checks from us. The rights in this notice do not apply to original checks or to electronic debits to your account. However, you have rights under other law with respect to those transactions.

WHAT ARE YOUR RIGHTS REGARDING SUBSTITUTE CHECKS?

In certain cases, federal law provides a special procedure that allows you to request a refund for losses you suffer if a substitute check is posted to your account (for example, if you think that we withdrew the wrong amount from your account or that we withdrew money from your account more than once for the same check). The losses you may attempt to recover under this procedure may include the amount that was withdrawn from your account and fees that were charged as a result of the withdrawal (for example, bounced check fees).

The amount of your refund under this procedure is limited to the amount of your loss or the amount of the substitute check, whichever is less. You are also entitled to dividends on the amount of your refund if your account is a dividend-bearing account. If your loss exceeds the amount of the substitute check, you may be able to recover additional amounts under other law.

If you use this procedure, you may receive up to $2,500 of your refund (plus dividends if your account earns dividends) within 10 business days after we received your claim and the remainder of your refund (plus dividends) not later than 45 calendar days after we received your claim.

We may reverse the refund (including any dividend on the refund) if we later are able to demonstrate that the substitute check was correctly posted to your account.

HOW DO YOU MAKE A CLAIM FOR A REFUND?

If you believe that you have suffered a loss relating to a substitute check that you received and that was posted to your account, please write to us at the address listed on your statement. You must contact us within 40 calendar days of the date that we mailed (or otherwise delivered by a means to which you agreed) the substitute check in question or the account statement showing that the substitute check was posted to your account, whichever is later. We will extend this time period if you were not able to make a timely claim because of extraordinary circumstances.

Your claim must include -

- A description of why you have suffered a loss (for example, you think the amount withdrawn was incorrect)';
- An estimate of the amount of your loss';
- An explanation of why the substitute check you received is insufficient to confirm that you suffered a loss; and
- A copy of the substitute check or information to help us identify the substitute check, for example the check number, the name of the person to whom you wrote the check, and the amount of the check.

Minor Checking Accounts We will establish checking accounts for a minor child upon request of a parent, grandparent or legal guardian. A responsible adult must be legal owner on a checking account for a minor child. Access to these accounts will not be restricted due to the age of the minor child and we will not require an adult signature for withdrawals

ATM/DEBIT Cards By your signature on a Signature Card in the designated place for ATM/Debit Card; you have requested that we issue you a Credit Union ATM/Debit Card for use in automated teller machines ("ATMs"), to electronically access your accounts. Use of ATMs, especially at night, is at your own risk. You will be notified of the type, number and amount of transactions you may make with your ATM/Debit Card. We reserve the right to deny access to an ATM/Debit card to anyone under the age of 18. We will not issue a card to anyone under age 16. Withdrawals are subject to the available balance in your account and we will not authorize overdrafts unless you have provided your specific consent (by opting in) for us to do so. If you have opted-in, a fee applies to each withdrawal that exceeds your available balance.

Daisy By your signature on a Signature Card in the designated place, you have requested that we issue a Personal Identification Number ("Pin") for your use with a touch-tone telephone, to electronically access your accounts through our Direct Access Information System (Daisy). You will be notified of the type of transactions you may make.

Other Accounts The Credit Union offers other accounts, such as Share Certificates and Individual Retirement Accounts ("IRA") that are covered by these rules and special rules disclosed to you at the time of opening of the account.

Share/Savings Deposit Insurance All accounts are federally insured to at least $250,000 and are backed by the full faith and credit of the United States Government.

FEES AND CHARGES The Fee Schedule that you have received with these rules gives the current dollar amount of our charges and any transaction limits imposed for stop payment orders (including stop payment of electronic fund transfers), return of checks for insufficient funds, overdrafts, dormant accounts, special services, and certain other matters. The amount of each fee will be charged to your account when incurred, in accordance with our then current Fee Schedule, unless you pay the amount separately. We may charge any account for a fee incurred if the account upon which it was assessed has been closed or we may overdraft the amount (which may result in an additional fee) if the available balance is insufficient balance to pay any charges. Any fees charged to the account could result in the account being brought to a zero balance and closed.

DEPOSITS We will accept your deposits in person, by ATM, by direct deposit (from your employer, retirement program, dividend checks or government check), ACH, by mail, or by night depository. Your deposits will be made available to you based on the Funds Availability Disclosure contained herein. You will be required to pay any unusual fees involved in collecting your deposit. We will not be responsible for the negligence of any other financial institutions involved in the collection process. We are not responsible for transactions initiated by mail or outside depository until we actually receive and record them. We provide night depository facilities for use at your own risk. We reserve the right to verify all deposits, including ATM deposits, and after examination, reserve the right to correct any mistakes and change any entries which are in error. Coin counting services are provided for your use. Excessive deposits of coin, as determined by us, will be subject to a fee of 5% of the amount deposited.

WITHDRAWALS You may withdraw from a Savings Account in person, in writing, by ATM, by Daisy, by electronic funds transfer or by telephone. You may withdraw from your Checking Account by check, in person, by ATM, by Daisy, by electronic funds transfer, by telephone or in writing. The minimum withdrawal amount from any type of account is $5.00. Each of you who sign a Signature Card (until we receive written notice to the contrary) authorizes each other person signing a Signature Card to withdraw or transfer any or all of the account balance at any time. Each of you also authorizes the other to endorse any item payable to you or your order for deposit only to your account. We reserve the right to not process any transaction that is by any method not specifically permitted or which is greater in the number of transactions allowed or which is less than any minimum imposed. The honoring of any unusual method or practice does not waive our right to refuse any future such request. Any abuse of privileges may cause the account to be closed. You are jointly and severally liable for repayment of all overdrawn amounts, regardless of how or by whom, such a negative balance is incurred. We reserve the right to require you to give us 60 days notice on all withdrawals from Savings Accounts.

An official check that has been issued from an account that has been opened less than 90 days will not be eligible for cashing until 48 hours after the check was issued

SAVINGS ACCOUNT TRANSFERS All pre-authorized and electronic fund transfers from a Savings Account to another account, or third parties, are restricted to a maximum of six per month.

DIVIDENDS We will pay dividends on your accounts held at the Credit union. The rate and method we use to calculate dividends may change from time to time without written notice. By law we are prohibited from guaranteeing the payment of dividends or guaranteeing that those payments will be at the contracted amount. Dividend payments to you must be based upon the money we actually earn and that is available for distribution at the end of a dividend earnings period. Dividends will be earned throughout the period if they are considered to be fully paid from the first of the month according to our by-laws or applicable accounts. The current method of calculating and paying dividends is described in the Truth in Savings Disclosure section. The current rates are posted in each of our offices, on our website and are available upon request.

DIRECT DEPOSIT We will deposit any amount that has been authorized through the direct deposit plan of the Federal Government or your employer. If, in connection with any such deposit, we deposit any amount in your account which should not have been deposited, and should have been returned to the Federal Government or your employer, you authorize us to deduct the amount from the account or from another account you have with us. This deduction may be without prior notice, if allowed by law. We reserve the right to seek other legal remedies to recover any loss to us.

STATEMENTS A statement of your account(s) will be available electronically, within L&N Federal Credit Union's Internet Banking service, free of charge. If you have a Checking Account(s), statements will be updated and available monthly. Savings, Certificate and Loan accounts will be updated and available quarterly (if there are no monetary transactions, statement(s) will be available on an annual basis). If you elect to receive paper statements, sent by regular mail, a fee of $2.00 per month will be charged to your Savings or Checking account.

Your statement will show all activity on your accounts for the previous period. If you do not notify us of any unauthorized signatures or alterations within a reasonable time, not to exceed 14 days, after we send or make available to you your statement then: (1) you cannot assert the unauthorized signature or alteration against us, even if we are unable to show a loss due to your failure of notice, and (2) you cannot assert any unauthorized signatures or alterations by the same wrongdoer on items paid by us after the 14 day period elapses, but before we receive your notice. We lose these protections if we fail to exercise ordinary care in paying an item with an unauthorized signature or alteration, unless you do not notify us within 60 days after we send or make available to you the statement. You will lose your right to assert any other problem with your account, unless you notify us within the 60-day period. Please refer to the Electronic Funds Transfer Disclosure to determine your notification obligations in the event of unauthorized electronic fund transfers or other errors in connection with such transfers.

INACTIVE OR DORMANT ACCOUNTS If there are no deposits or withdrawals to or from an account for a period of 6 months or more and the balance in the account is below $100 and there is no forwarding address, we will consider such account inactive and dormant. A monthly dormant account charge may be imposed. For checking accounts, if the account remains inactive for 6 months, a $5.00 per month service fee will be assessed until the account reaches a zero balance and is then closed by the credit union. These accounts will receive no dividends or statements. Accounts excluded are those of members younger than 16 years of age.

RIGHT OF SET-OFF We have the right to set-off any part or all of the funds in your accounts (except IRAs) and to apply such funds against any obligation that you or any legal owner may have with us, either now or in the future. Any time the credit union sustains a loss on an account of yours, whether as primary or legal owner, your ability to remain a member of our credit union is cancelled and you are prohibited from becoming or remaining a legal owner on any other membership within the credit union.

SUSPENSION/DENIAL OF SERVICES We have the right to suspend the benefit of any credit union service at any time for reasonable cause. Account services are available to those members in good standing with the credit

GARNISHMENTS OF YOUR ACCOUNTS If the funds in your account are attached, levied against, garnished or otherwise proceeded against as the result of a lawsuit that someone has brought against you or against a legal owner on the account, we are obligated to comply with any levy, attachment or garnishment we receive. You must reimburse us for any additional expenses that we may incur.

COLLECTION COSTS Under this agreement, you agree to pay the actual costs of collection including court costs and reasonable attorney fees.

CONSENT TO CONTACT You agree that we may notify you using your contact information listed in our records, including your email address and telephone number(s). By providing phone number(s) to us (including any wireless, mobile, or VOIP number), you expressly consent to receive autodialed or prerecorded calls and text messages from L&NFCU or any agents performing services on our behalf. You consent to receive calls or text messages:

- (i) to notify you in regards to any of your accounts;
- (ii) to provide you with credit or debit card transaction alerts;
- (iii) to collect a debt or other obligation; or
- (iv) as otherwise necessary to service your accounts, loans, or products.

CONSENT TO MONITORING AND RECORDING You provide your express consent to our monitoring and recording of our conversations and other communications with you. Your consent applies to our monitoring and recording of telephone conversations, electronic messages, electronic records, or other data transmissions between you and us regarding your account or other products and services offered by us. Your consent applies regardless of whether you or we initiated the contact. We monitor and record conversations and communications for quality control, fraud prevention, and training purposes.

STATUTORY LIEN We have the power to impress and enforce a lien upon your account balances to the extent of any loan, including interest, fees, and charges, made to you and any fees or charges you may owe to us. We may exercise these rights as a federally chartered Credit Union without obtaining a court order and by any other methods permitted by law.

CHANGE OF ADDRESS It is your responsibility to keep us informed of your correct address and any delay in notice under these rules due to your negligence, shall not act as a waiver of the time periods nor extend the time periods in any way that would increase our liability due to your negligence. A monthly fee may be imposed on your account for lack of a correct address.

POWERS OF ATTORNEY The Credit Union may allow a third person acting as your attorney-in-fact to make transactions regarding your account(s), pursuant to a Durable Power of Attorney, or Military Power of Attorney, but has no obligation to do so. You agree that we have no obligation to verify the scope, authenticity, and validity of any Power of Attorney presented to us. If we accept the Power of Attorney, the Credit Union has no duty to inquire as to the use or purpose of any transaction(s) by your attorney-in-fact, and may restrict or refuse account access, withdrawals and transfers. Further, you agree to reimburse the Credit Union for all costs and expenses, including attorneys' fees, we incur and agree to indemnify us for any loss or other expense we incur from our acceptance of your Power of Attorney.

Dividend Payment Policy For share/savings accounts, you begin earning dividends on the deposit (whether it was a deposit of cash or checks) as of the date of deposit until the date of withdrawal. Dividends are posted to the account quarterly and are available for withdrawal on the first working day of the new quarter.

For qualifying checking accounts, you begin earning dividends on the deposit (whether it was a deposit of cash or checks) as of the date of deposit until the date of withdrawal, provided the account balance requirements are met. Dividends are posted to the account monthly and are available for withdrawal on the first working day of the new month.

For Money Market Accounts, you begin earning dividends on the deposit (whether it was a deposit of cash or checks) as of the date of deposit until the date of withdrawal as long as the daily minimum balance is met. Dividends are posted to the account monthly and are available for withdrawal on the first working day of each month.

TRUTH IN SAVINGS DISCLOSURE

RATE INFORMATION The Dividend Rate and Annual Percentage Yield (APY) for each account are set forth in the accompanying Share/Savings Disclosure, Checking Disclosure, Money Market Disclosure, and/or Certificate Account Disclosure. The Dividend Rate and APY for all accounts may change monthly as determined by the Board of Directors.

COMPOUNDING AND CREDITING The dividend period for all Savings type accounts is quarterly. For example, the beginning date of the first dividend period of the calendar year is January 1st and the ending date of such dividend period is March 31st. The dividend period for all Checking accounts and all Money Market accounts is monthly. For Premium and Superior checking accounts, dividends will be figured on the daily balance and paid monthly. On the Gold Checking accounts, dividends will be figured on the daily balance of $2000 or more and paid monthly. For Money Market Accounts, dividends will be figured on the daily balance and paid monthly. For Premier Money Market Accounts, dividends will be figured on the daily balance of $25,000 or more and paid monthly. The dividend declaration date follows the ending date of a dividend period. If an account is closed before dividends are credited, accrued dividends will be paid.

MINIMUM BALANCE REQUIREMENTS The minimum balance required to open any Savings type account is $5.00, the par value. There is a minimum balance of $5.00 to earn dividends on all Savings type accounts. Some of the checking accounts offered do not earn dividends. To earn the disclosed APY, you must maintain, at least, an account's minimum balance to earn dividends for the dividend period. Dividends will not be earned on days when the account balance falls below the minimum. Maintaining a combined balance of $100.00 or more in the Regular Share/Savings account will avoid the imposition of a dormant account fee. For Checking Accounts, order forms for checks will not be processed unless the available balance is sufficient to cover the costs of the order.

BALANCE COMPUTATION METHODS Dividends are calculated by the Daily Balance Method. Dividends are calculated under this method by applying a daily periodic rate to the balance in the account each day of the period.

ACCRUAL OF DIVIDENDS Dividends begin to accrue on the business day you deposit noncash items into your account.

TRANSACTION LIMITATIONS For Savings type accounts, the following limitations or restrictions apply to all accounts according to the Bylaws of L&N FCU:

- The Board shall have the right, at any time, to require members to give, in writing, not more than 60 days notice of intention to withdraw the whole or any part of the amounts so paid in by them.
- No member may withdraw shareholdings that are pledged as required security on loans without the written approval of a loan officer, except to the extent that such savings exceed the member's total primary and contingent liability to the credit union.
- No member may withdraw any shareholding below the amount of his/her primary or contingent liability to the credit union if he/she is delinquent as a borrower, or if borrowers for whom he/she is co-maker, endorser, or guarantor are delinquent, without the written approval of a loan officer.
- During any statement period, you may not make more than six withdrawals or transfers to another Credit Union account of yours or to a third party by means of a preauthorized or automated transfer or telephonic order or instruction. If you exceed the transfer limitations set forth above in any statement period, your account will be subject to closure by the Credit Union or to a fee per excessive item.

NATURE OF DIVIDENDS Dividends are paid from current income and available earnings, after required transfers to reserves at the end of a dividend period.

FEES AND CHARGES The fees and charges that may be charged on an account are itemized in the accompanying "Fee Schedule", which Schedule is incorporated herein by reference. These fees may reduce the earnings on your account. The amount of each fee will be charged to your account when incurred, unless you pay the amount separately. We may charge another account of yours for a fee incurred if the account on which the fee was assessed has been closed or the available balance is insufficient to pay the charge.

ELECTRONIC FUNDS TRANSFERS AGREEMENT

The following governs any electronic fund transfer ("Transaction") made by you, or anyone authorized by you, in connection with your accounts at the Credit Union, whether initiated by an ATM/Debit Card, by pre-authorized Transaction (transfers authorized on a recurring basis at regular intervals), by Daisy, by mobile banking or by other means of access provided now or in the future. We will issue you a PIN, which you must use together with the ATM/Debit Card to access our own ATMs and the STAR Card regional network of ATMs. The PIN will also be necessary to access such services as Point-of Sale Terminals (POS) and other electronic systems made available now or in the future to perform Transactions on your Credit Union accounts. Another PIN will be issued for use with our bank-by-telephone service called Daisy and for access to our mobile banking environment.

AGREEMENTS Transactions may only be performed while your accounts have sufficient available balances to complete the transaction requested. Wrongfully obtaining funds from the Credit Union by use of an ATM/Debit Card or PIN constitutes a federal criminal offense, punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both. All terms and conditions of any written agreements that have been previously made between you and the Credit Union regarding the use of the ATM/DEBIT Card and a PIN and any of your Credit Union accounts apply to all Transactions, unless any terms or conditions in those agreements conflict with the rules and regulations set forth in this disclosure, in which case the rules and regulations of this disclosure will control. All Transactions, whether deposits, withdrawals, or transfers, made with the ATM/Debit Card or a PIN are subject to verification by the Credit Union. Any card or other instrument issued by the Credit Union shall supersede the present instruments.

PROPERTY RIGHTS The ATM/Debit Card and the PIN are property of the Credit Union and your right to use these in connection with your Credit Union accounts may be terminated at any time without notice. You will surrender your ATM/Debit Card or cease to use your PIN whenever the Credit Union asks for them. You will not allow any other person possession or use of the ATM/Debit Card or PIN. It is your responsibility to prevent disclosure and unauthorized use of your ATM/Debit Card and PIN. If you allow any person to use your ATM/Debit Card or PIN, then you will be held liable for any of their use by that person, unless you notify the Credit Union that the individual is no longer authorized by you to make Transactions on your accounts. The Credit Union will, as soon as possible, after notification, block further Transactions on your account.

CHANGES We reserve the right to change or add to these rules and regulations at any time, upon giving you reasonable notice. When required by law, our notice will be at least 21 days prior to the effective date of the change. Such notice may consist of enclosing a notice on or in the statement of the account or mailing a notice in a special mailing or, if you have agreed, providing you electronic notification. Notice to any legal account holder of the ATM/Debit Card or PIN is notice to all of you. In the event we determine that an immediate change is necessary to maintain or restore the security of the electronic fund transfer services or to any account, then we may make the necessary change without advising you in advance. We can delay enforcing any of our rights against you without losing them.

ELECTRONIC FUNDS TRANSFER DISCLOSURE

This disclosure contains important information about your rights and liabilities; please retain this disclosure with your valuable papers for future reference.

YOUR OBLIGATIONS It is very important to keep your PIN confidential and separate from your ATM/Debit Card to prevent someone from using it to make transactions without your permission.

Tell us AT ONCE if you believe your ATM/Debit Card or PIN has been lost or stolen. Telephoning is the best way of keeping your possible losses down. You could lose all the money in your account, plus your maximum overdraft line-of-credit, if any. If you tell us within 2 business days, you can lose no more than $50.00 if someone used your ATM/Debit Card or PIN without your permission.

If you do NOT tell us within 2 business days after you learn of the loss or theft of your ATM/Debit Card or PIN, and we can prove that we could have stopped someone from using your ATM/Debit Card or PIN without your permission if you had told us, you could lose as much as $500.00.

Also, if your statement shows transfers that you did not make, tell us at once. If you do not tell us within 60 days after the statement was mailed to you, you may not get back any money you lost after the 60 days if we can prove that we could have stopped someone from taking the money if you had told us in time. If a good reason (such as a long trip or a hospital stay) kept you from telling us, we will extend the time period.

FUNDS AVAILABILITY - YOUR ABILITY TO WITHDRAW FUNDS

This policy statement applies to Checking Accounts. These are our transaction accounts, which permit an average monthly number of payments, not to exceed 50 per month, to third parties and an unlimited number of telephone and pre-authorized transfers to other accounts of yours with us, up to the available balance in your account. A fee may be imposed if payments in excess of 50 per month are paid on the account. Feel free to ask us whether any of your other accounts might also be under this policy.

When you deposit checks and similar items to your L&NFCU account, you expect us to make the funds available for your use as quickly as possible. Our Funds Availability Policy is designed to do just that. Depending on the type of non-cash deposit you make, your funds may be available as quickly as the next business day. Of course, depending on the amount, type and source of your non-cash deposit, there are situations when your deposit will take longer to become available for your use.

Our Funds Availability Policy provides detailed information about when funds you deposit will become available for your use. This policy is in effect for accounts opened at all L&NFCU branches.

Please take a moment to review this Policy. By understanding how we make your deposits of non-cash items available, it will be easier for you to manage your account and realize all the benefits of banking with L&NFCU.

AVAILABILITY TIMELINE FOR DEPOSITS TO ESTABLISHED ACCOUNTS

Below is our general policy for accounts open for more than 30 days. Longer delays may apply, and different rules apply for checks deposited to accounts open 30 days or less.

We determine availability by counting the number of business days from the business day of your deposit. Every day except Saturday, Sunday and a federal holiday is a business day.

WHAT IS A “BUSINESS DAY?” A business day is any day of the week except Saturday, Sunday, and Federal holidays. Our cut-off time for branches will be the closing time of the branch, but no later than 6:00 p.m. The cut-off time for a mobile device is 5:00 p.m. The cut-off time for non-L&NFCU ATMs is 3:00 p.m. Deposits made through our night depository after 8:00 a.m. may be processed on the next business day.

If you make a deposit through one of our branch tellers, ATM, mobile device, or by mail before our cut-off time, we will consider that day to be the day of your deposit. However, if you make a deposit after our cut-off time or on a day that is not a business day, we will consider the deposit as being made on the next business day we are open. Availability varies depending on the type of deposit and is explained below.

When a deposit is made by...	Deposited funds are available...
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Electronic Deposit• Wire Transfer	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Usually the same day, but see “Longer Days May Apply”
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Cash• Check

Please remember that even after we have made funds available to you, and you have withdrawn the funds, you are still responsible for checks you deposit that are returned to us unpaid and for any other problems involving your deposit.

LONGER DELAYS MAY APPLY Funds from check deposits may not be available according to the timeline described above. In some cases, funds may be held for up to three business days, and in other specific cases they may be held for up to 7 business days after the day of your deposit. We will notify you if we delay your ability to withdraw funds, and we will tell you when the funds will be available.

In the case of a 2-day hold:

- The first $225 of the deposit will be available on the next business day.
- The entire deposit will be available for paying checks you have written on the second business day.
- The remainder will be available for cash withdrawal on the third business day.

Funds from check deposits may be delayed for up to 7 business days if:

- We believe a deposited check will not be paid.
- You deposit checks totaling more than $5000 on any one day.
- You redeposit a check that has been returned unpaid.
- You have overdrawn your account repeatedly in the last 6 months.
- There is an emergency, such as failure of computer or communication equipment.

If you will need the funds from a deposit right away, ask us when the funds will be available.

L&NFCU may charge your account for the amount of any funds transfer initiated by you or by any person authorized by you as joint tenant or other authorized party with the right of access to the account from which the funds transfer is to be made. Funds transfers requests may be made by phone, fax, or in person.
4. L&NFCU may establish, from time to time, security procedures to verify the authenticity of the payment order. You will be notified of the security procedures, if any, to be used to verify payment orders issued by you or for which your account will be liable. You agree that the authenticity of payment orders may be verified using the security procedures unless you notify L&NFCU in writing that you do not agree to that security procedure. In that event, L&NFCU shall have no obligation to accept any payment order from you or authorized parties on the account until you and L&NFCU agree, in writing, on an alternative security procedure.

5. If you send or receive a wire transfer, Fed wire may be used. Regulation J is the law covering all Fed wire transactions, setting forth your rights and liabilities in a wire transfer involving Fed wire.
6. If you give L&NFCU a payment order which identifies the beneficiary (recipient of the funds) by name and an identifying or account number, you are responsible to L&NFCU if the funds transfer is completed on the basis of the identification or account number you provided. This is true if the beneficiary's financial institution credited the transaction based only on the identifying or account number, even if the name on the account is a person different than the named beneficiary.
7. If you give L&NFCU a payment order, which identifies an intermediary of a beneficiary's financial institution by name and identifying number, a receiving financial institution may rely on the number as the proper identification even if it identifies a different institution than provided by you. Therefore, you are responsible for any loss or expenses incurred by a receiving financial institution which executes or attempts to execute the payment order in reliance on the identifying number you provided.
8. L&NFCU may give you credit for ACH payments before it receives final settlement of the transfer funds. Any such credit is provisional until L&NFCU receives final settlement of the payment. You are hereby notified and agree if L&NFCU does not receive such final settlement, that it is entitled to a refund from you of the amount credited to you in connection with that ACH entry. Therefore, you are responsible for funds advanced to you prior to final settlement and if the funds are not actually received by L&NFCU you must repay any funds advanced on your behalf.
9. ACH transactions are governed by operating rules of the National Automated Clearing House Association. In accordance with these rules, you will receive notice of receipt of ACH items in the periodic statements of your account.

If you or we commence litigation of a Claim, neither you nor we waive our right to elect arbitration with respect to any counterclaim or other Claim that you or we may make. In the event that a court grants a motion to compel arbitration, either party may commence the arbitration proceeding in accordance with the rules and procedures of the arbitration administrator specified in this section.
